

CONTENTS

Foreword	vii
Introduction: The Promises of Accountability Research Melvin J. Dubnick and H. George Frederickson	xi
Part I. Complex Challenges	1
1. The Challenge of Multiple Accountability: Does Redundancy Lead to Overload? Thomas Schillemans and Mark Bovens	3
2. The Tangled Web of Accountability in Contracting Networks: The Case of Welfare Reform Barbara S. Romzek	22
3. Accountability Challenges in Public Sector Contracting for Complex Products Trevor L. Brown, Matthew Potoski, and David M. Van Slyke	42
4. Accountability for Global Governance Organizations Jonathan Koppell	55
Part II. Obstacles to Accountability	79
5. Performance Blight and the Tyranny of Light? Accountability in Advanced Performance Measurement Regimes Christopher Pollitt	81
6. Does Performance Measurement Actually Improve Accountability? Beryl A. Radin	111
7. The Accountability Environment of U.S. Counties Bonnie J. Johnson, John C. Pierce, and Nicholas P. Lovrich, Jr.	127
Part III. Assessing Accountability	127
8. Accountability Institutions and Information in the Policy-Making Process Paul L. Posner and Robert Schwartz	129
9. Accountability and Information-Technology Enactment: A Cross-National Perspective Richard K. Ghere	146

Part IV. Adapting to Accountability	165
10. Blame Avoidance and Accountability: Positive, Negative, or Neutral? Christopher Hood	180
11. The Challenges of Accountability for International Nongovernmental and Civil-Society Organizations Margaret P. Karns, Timothy J. Shaffer, and Richard K. Ghere	197
12. Accountability in the Nonprofit Sector: Abandoning the One-Size-Fits-All Approach Kevin P. Kearns	213
Part V. Strategies	211
13. Watching the Watchers Sally Wheeler	213
14. Accountability and Voluntary Programs Matthew Potoski and Aseem Prakash	225
Part VI. Rethinking Accountability	239
15. Accountability in Two Non-Western Contexts Sara R. Jordan	241
16. Accountability and a Theory of Representation Ciarán O’Kelly	255
17. Emergent Accountability and Structuration Theory: Implications Kaifeng Yang	269
18. Rethinking the Obsession: Accountability and the Financial Crisis Melvin J. Dubnick and Justin P. O’Brien	282
Conclusion: Taking Stock and Moving Forward Melvin J. Dubnick and H. George Frederickson	302
About the Editors and Contributors	304
Name Index	x
Subject Index	x